

Thousand Islands Comic & Gaming Convention Sponsorship

Sponsoring the convention does more than help protect New York's indigenous wildlife through Zoo New York's conservation efforts: it benefits your organization too! From website mentions to great big on-site banners, there are tiers to fit every company and budget. And since the Zoo is a 503(c) non-profit entity, your sponsorship may be eligible for tax credits and deductions. It's a win-win-win, so become part of this legendary event today, and reap the rewards!
